

Mel Bochner "Liar"

£3,500.00

Etching with aquatint with black ink on Japanese surface Gampi paper
30 1/2 x 22 1/2 in
77.5 x 57.2 cm
Edition 10/20

"Blah blah blah," Mel Bochner's seminal 2008 work of the same name says to viewers. Bochner's conceptual work invites viewers to investigate the differences between "seeing" and "reading" art, superimposing words and colors in combinations that make viewers pause. For example, the Conceptual artist will cover canvases in obscenities painted in innocent hues of baby pink and blue or sweet words rendered in soiled browns and inky blacks.

Condition	Excellent
------------------	-----------

Antique ref: mb1