

Edwardian Birks Of Canada Aquamarine Pearl Diamond And Gold Bangle, Circa 1905
£11,750.00

An Edwardian aquamarine, diamond, pearl and gold bangle, by Birks, of Canada, with three aquamarines, the central one being an octagonal shaped faceted step-cut, with a natural pearl set north, south, east and west, with a millegrain edged, rub over set Edwardian-cut diamond, either side of each pearl. The two outer aquamarines are emerald-cut and have a natural pearl set above and below, with a rub over set Edwardian-cut diamond either side, with a diamond and pearl on the inner edges and a diamond on the outer edges. The stones are set on a three row knife-edge, hinged bangle, mounted in 18ct gold, signed Birks, stamped 18K, with a box and tongue clasp and fine safety chain, circa 1905.

Origin	Other
Period	Early 1900s
Style	Edwardian
Condition	Very good
Materials	Gold
Main Gemstone	Aquamarine
Main Gemstone Cut	Other
Carat for Gold	18 K

Dimensions

External 59.3 x 54mm

Secondary Gemstone

Diamond

Antique ref: S28122T